END THE OCCUPATION OF IRAQ

The war on Iraq was waged for oil and to make profits for US corporations. This war is part of neo-liberal globalisation-where countries like the US go to war to create new markets and more profit for its big multinationals like Exxon, Bechtel, Halliburton. They hope that they can use their military might to force every country to implement their free-market policies of privatisation.

NO TO BIN CHARGES-NO PRIVATISATION- PROTEST -RELEASE JOE AND CLARE- SEPT 30th 6.30PM DAIL EIREANN

Here in Ireland the government is imposing the neo-liberal free market agenda through the implementation of service charges, cutting our health services, deportations etc. Just like neo-liberalism means privatising Iraq here they want to privatise all our services. We must defend the right to protest and defend our civil liberties!

THE EUROPEAN SOCIAL FORUM

Across the world people are fighting back against war and privatisation-from Argentina to South Africa and France to Ireland the struggle for a better world is gaining strength and momentum. Tens of thousands of activists involved in these struggles from all over Europe will meet in Paris at the second European Social Forum from 12th to the 16th of November. The ESF is five days of open meetings, debates, discussions, international co-ordination of action and protests. Activists from GR are going over to Paris. We are proposing the May 1st EU meeting in Dublin becomes an international day of action. If you are interested in going book your flight and contact us for accommodation details. for more details on the Irish mobilisation.
